Directions: Use the background information, your knowledge of history, and the cartoon to answer the questions below.

Background information: In 1893, Illinois Governor Altgeld pardoned those found guilty for the Haymarket Square bombing of 1886. This cartoon appeared in the New York magazine Judge soon after. It depicts Altgeld releasing the hounds of anarchy on Lady Columbia, a symbol of liberty. The caption reads “The Friend of Mad Dogs: Governor Altgeld of Illinois in freeing the anarchists bitterly denounced Judge Gary and the jury that convicted them.”

Question 1: Does this cartoon approve of Altgeld’s pardon? _________________

Question 2: Which two of the facts below might help explain why the cartoonist depicted Altgeld’s pardon in this way?

1. The Haymarket riot in 1886 aroused fears about anarchism in the United States.
2. In 1901, a lone anarchist named Leon Czolgosz assassinated U.S. President William McKinley.
3. By the 1880s, Chicago had grown into a major industrial city.
4. Conflicts between workers and management increased during the depression of 1893.

CONTINUE ON BACK
Fact # ______ might help explain why the cartoonist depicted Altgeld’s pardon in this way because __________________________

______________________________

______________________________

______________________________

______________________________

Fact # ______ might help explain why the cartoonist depicted Altgeld’s pardon in this way because __________________________

______________________________

______________________________

______________________________

______________________________